

MAP OF THE SEAT OF WAR

COLTON'S
Map of
CENTRAL EUROPE

Published by
JOHNSON & BROWNING

No. 172 William Street.
(NEW YORK.)
1859.

REFERENCE TO THE STATES OF THE GERMAN CONFEDERATION

1. Austria	2. Baden	3. Bavaria	4. Bremen	5. Brunswick	6. Hanover	7. Hesse	8. Mecklenburg	9. Nassau	10. Prussia	11. Saxony	12. Schleswig-Holstein	13. Saxe-Coburg	14. Saxe-Meiningen	15. Saxony	16. Saxony	17. Saxony	18. Saxony	19. Saxony	20. Saxony	21. Saxony	22. Saxony	23. Saxony	24. Saxony	25. Saxony	26. Saxony	27. Saxony	28. Saxony	29. Saxony	30. Saxony
------------	----------	------------	-----------	--------------	------------	----------	----------------	-----------	-------------	------------	------------------------	-----------------	--------------------	------------	------------	------------	------------	------------	------------	------------	------------	------------	------------	------------	------------	------------	------------	------------	------------

Germany comprises about one third part of the Empire of Austria, the greater part of Prussia, Saxony, and Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. The whole of Saxony, Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, and Saxe-Meiningen have been annexed to Prussia since the Peace of Vienna. The boundaries of Germany are represented by a dotted line.